Bob Dolman graduated Medicine from Queens Univ, Kingston, ON in 1952. He may well have joined the UNTD prior to the fall of '48. He retired from the Naval Reserve after 1956, as a Surg. LCDR.

As alluded to in his obit, one of his daughters, Nancy, married comedian Martin Short in 1980. A comedic actress in her own right, she died of ovarian cancer in 2010.

Another of Bob Dolman's sons, Bob Jr, also in show business himself, married comedienne Andrea Martin, also in 1980. They divorced in 2004.

I can only guess that family reunions at the Dolman's would have had an above average hilarity quotient.
