

GLENDENNING, Andrew Howard (Andy) [UNTD SCOTIAN (Acadia) '60] (1941 - 2011) Age: 70

ANDREW (ANDY) HOWARD GLENDENNING At the Kingston General Hospital on Tuesday, November 14, 2011, peacefully in the arms of his workmate, wife and best friend of 27 years, Donna McNeil. Andy Glendenning of Tamworth at age 70. Graduate of Acadia University in Nova Scotia, former Royal Canadian Naval Officer, retired provincial civil servant having served the Ministries of Environment, Education and Housing, sailor, wood artist, animal lover, environmentalist, competitive swimmer, marksman, wildlife photographer, carpenter, gardener, homebuilder, all-around tinkerer with anything with moving parts. Andy was born August 15, 1941 and emigrated to Canada with his family in 1951. Proud and devoted father of Nadia of Kingston and Alex of Belleville, father-in-law of Kristin and grandfather of Arin, loving son of Gwynneth of Tamworth and the late Bert Glendenning and loving son-in-law of Geneva McNeil of Picton. Brother to Gail Thompson (Howard) of Chicago, Alison Campbell (Tony) of Ottawa and David Glendenning of Vancouver and brother-in-law to Joanne McNeil-Leitch (David) of North Vancouver. Uncle Andy was loved by numerous nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews. A gathering of family and friends will be held at the HANNAH FUNERAL HOME in Tamworth (613-379-2997), on Saturday, November 19 from 2-4 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Stone Mills Fire Department and/or The Friends of the Salmon River would be appreciated by the family. Online condolences at www.hannahfuneralhome.com Published in the Toronto Star on Nov. 16, 2011

Andy had 3 UNTD summers; '61, '62, '63.
He was promoted to SLT in the Fall of '63.

Regards,

Bill C