We have very little info on Roy Hudson, except to note that he joined the UNTD in October, 1943 as a 3rd year Arts student, probably as a transferee from the COTC. He graduated from Victoria College in 1944 and his intentions were to continue in the Navy and enter a Post-Graduate program. To what extent those things happened is unknown.

He apparently had a long tenure with the Kingston Collegiate and Vocational Institute, one of the oldest public schools in Canada. That school in previous appellations has had a string of well known and varied alumni, such as Sir John A. MacDonald our first PM, and Don Cherry.

In the obit, mention is made of his eldest child, David. Roy was spared the knowing that David died, in Kingston, a few months after he did, on Oct 23, 2008, at the age of 61.
