

KEYSERLINGK, Robert Henry (Bob) [UNTD DONNACONA '51 U-39xxx] (1933 - 2009)

ROBERT KEYSERLINGK Died on December 8, 2009 Robert Henry Keyserlingk, retired professor at the University of Ottawa. Son of Robert W. and Sigrid Keyserlingk, he had a life blessed with a happy marriage and a full professional life. He is survived by his beloved wife Michaela (nee Graefin Keyserlingk), his four children Andrea, Tom (Jane), Alex, and Martin (Melissa), seven grandchildren: Veronica, Megan, Nicolas, Adam, Melissa, Freya and Elysha and five siblings Edward, Cecile, Alexander, Henry and John. Special thanks to Dr Laurie and his colleagues at the ORCC for their outstanding support. A heartfelt thank you to Dr. L. Coulombe and her team at CPCN and all the other many people/ professionals that touched our lives with their kindness and understanding. The funeral will be held on Saturday, December 12, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Roman Catholic Church, 400 St. Laurent Blvd., Ottawa. The family will receive friends following the funeral at the Beechwood Cemetery National Memorial Centre, 280 Beechwood Avenue. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, Toronto, or the Canadian Cancer Society. For condolences please send to info@beechwoodcemetery.com

He had a younger brother, also a UNTD, who is still living, now in Reston, VA;

KEYSERLINGK, Alexander Nicolas [UNTD DONNACONA '58 U-641]

The family name is Germanic and dates from a period of Baltic nobility, from which they descend. They carry multiple names and titles which they did not use here.

Robert was an academic and author in Ottawa and Alexander was/is a multilingual Internationalist.